MEMORIAL DAY emerged from the shadows of the Civil War and was first observed in the South. Before the close of the war, a group of women decorated the graves of those who had died in that war. A few years later, in 1868, May 30th was set aside as a day for placing flowers on the graves of soldiers throughout the United States. In the years since World War Two it has become a day when many Christians remember those who have gone before us.

As we observe Memorial Day let us not forget the men and women who are serving in the military today, both here at home and in the dangerous parts of the world. And as we pay tribute to those who gave their lives to keep us free, may we be grateful for this great nation. Here in this part of the world we are free to worship, a privilege that millions still do not have.
